Quito City Tour - With a privileged location, surrounded by beautiful valleys and spectacular mountains, Quito is close enough to the sky so you can touch it. Quito now shows its restored colonial district with splendid churches, plazas, galleries & museums. Undiminished by the passage of time and the ferocious forces of nature, Quito's historic center is the best preserved, least altered in all of Latin America, conserving the milieu of Colonial times with all its richness and diversity. This glorious historic center is a maze of narrow streets lined with exquisite monasteries, churches and antiquated houses, all examples of the most beautiful colonial architecture on the continent.
